

Activity 1

The Internet is the most popular source of language samples. However, there are many other ways to learn English! This activity will push you to explore other sources of samples.

Read each task below. Think about the samples you would need to complete the task. Then, use the internet, a print sample (book, magazine, etc.), a broadcast media sample (TV show, movie, etc.), or a person to get the information you require. You must use each type of sample at least once.

	Internet	Print	Media	People
You're a graphic designer, and your assignment is to create a logo featuring an inuksuk.
You work at a garden centre, and your boss wants you to prepare a presentation for customers about the proper care of crocuses.
Your French-Canadian friend is having a party, and wants to know if you can help her by making a tortiere.
A local magazine is accepting submissions for a Viator poem-writing contest.
You want to submit a business proposal to open a shop in Johnson's Terminal at the Forks.
Your workplace has put you in charge of organizing a company outing in the Exchange District.

THE iLEAP CYCLE : PART 2 LOCATE LANGUAGE SAMPLES >> use it

Activity 2

Review the goal you set last week. Do you still want to pursue this goal? If not, create a new one!

Once you have a clear goal, search for samples you can use to achieve your goal. Be sure to use a variety of sources.

Your goal:

Samples:

Sample 1:

Source: internet media
 print people

Features:
 vocabulary pronunciation
 grammar culture

Sample 2:

Source: internet media
 print people

Features:
 vocabulary pronunciation
 grammar culture

Sample 3:

Source: internet media
 print people

Features:
 vocabulary pronunciation
 grammar culture

Sample 4:

Source: internet media
 print people

Features:
 vocabulary pronunciation
 grammar culture